

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

In writing this thesis, several individuals and institutions have helped me. First and foremost, I express my gratitude to my research supervisor Dr. Barnali Sarma, Associate Professor, Department of History, Gauhati University for being a wise and ever-encouraging mentor. She has motivated me to pursue the research with enthusiasm. Throughout the period of my research her encouragement has helped me in a lot of ways. Besides my supervisor, I sincerely thank the Head and all the faculty members of Department of History, Gauhati University for their valuable inputs, support and encouragement in preparing the thesis.

I have used the resources and facilities provided by several institutions like Indian Council of Historical Research's East Regional Centre, Krishna Kanta Handique Library, Gauhati University, Assam State Archives, Dispur, West Bengal State Archives, Kolkata, National Archives of India, New Delhi, National Library of India, Kolkata, District Library, Guwahati, Directorate of Historical and Antiquarian Studies in Assam Guwahati and Omeo Kumar Das Institute of Social Change and Development, Guwahati and for that, I thank the staff members of these institutions.

My sincere gratitude goes to my fellow research scholars and my friends especially Dipak Bajgain, Kaushik Dutta, Parag Kumar Deka, Swakhsyar Saurav Talukdar, Joseph Barju, Jyotishmaan Gogoi, Deepsikha Barman, Param Krishna Gogoi, for their support and encouragement. I am grateful to all my colleagues of Dudhnoi College for their motivation. A special thanks goes to Mridul Dutta and Dr. Bharat Borah for keeping me free from culinary duties most of the times during my research period.

I thank my parents, Mr. Dwijen Pathok and Mrs. Protiva Bhagawoti for being always there for me and supporting me throughout this journey. Besides my parents, I am also fortunate to have Mr. Basudev Das and Mrs. Runu Das as my parents-in-laws who have encouraged me in a lot of ways. I also thank Anjan Das, my brother-in-law for providing me with technical and logistical support.

Last but not the least; I thank Dimpy, my better half for burning the midnight oil in many nights for me. Since the beginning of this research, she has been the hallmark of inspiration, encouragement and support for me. Without her, it would have been a much more difficult journey.

I end my words of thanks by declaring that none of the above mentioned people and institutions are responsible for any mistakes committed in the thesis.
